Core concepts used	• File Handling • Exception handling
Sprint-1	• Planning the flow of application and drawing a flowchart • Writing code to display all the file in the directory • Writing code to delete all the file in the directory • Checking the code works without any errors & returns appropriate message for invalid user input
Sprint-2	• Writing code to add the file to the directory • Writing code to search for a file in the directory • Applying try-catch block where ever necessary • Writing code to exit the application
Sprint-3	• Testing the program for various invalid inputs • Give finishing touches to the program